

Working together: Building partnerships in elder abuse and family violence

Does your work bring you into contact with older people?

If so, come along and hear from an expert panel addressing complex elder abuse situations and learn about integrated approaches to dealing with elder abuse.

The panel will include senior staff from the following:

- Integrated Model of Care for Responding to Suspected Elder Abuse
- Aged Care Assessment Service
- Orange Door
- Salvation Army Family Violence Service
- FMC Mediation and Counselling
- Victoria Police Family Violence Unit

When: Wednesday 3rd October 2018

Cost: Free

Time: 10:00am -12:30 pm

Parking: Free parking is available underneath Kingston City Hall (70 spaces). Two hour parking is available in surrounding streets.

Where: Kingston Arts Centre
979 Nepean Hwy, Moorabbin

Bookings can be made at: www.working_together.eventbrite.com.au
RSVP: 28 September 2018

Selina Nivelles, Elder Abuse Liaison Officer, Monash Health
9265 7835
Selina.Nivelles@monashhealth.org.au

MonashHealth

This project is supported by the Victorian Government

Brought to you by Monash Health Integrated Model of Care for Responding to Suspected Elder Abuse, Monash Health Strengthening Hospitals Response to Family Violence, Southern Melbourne Primary Care Partnership Elder Abuse Prevention Network and Bayside Elder Abuse Network.